

Society for Continental Philosophy and Theology 2008 Conference

Postmodernism, Truth, and Religious Pluralism

April 11-12
Gordon College

Speakers & Schedule

Friday, April 11

- 2:00-3:30 PM Roger Haight, Union Theological Seminary
"The Impact of Pluralism on Ecclesiology"
- 3:30-3:45 Break
- 3:45-4:45 Ed Mooney, Syracuse University
"Tactile Truth: A View from the Trenches"
- 4:45-5:00 Break
- 5:00-6:00 Katharine Sarah Moody, Lancaster University
"A New Kind of Christian is a New Kind of Atheist: Truth and A/Theistic Orthodoxy in the Emerging Church Milieu"
- 6:15-8:00 Reception:

Saturday, April 12

9:30-10:30 AM Thomas J. Clarke, Stonehill College

"Truth and Castration"

10:30-10:45 Break

10:45-11:45 Marion Larson and Sarah Shady, Bethel University

"Interfaith Dialogue in a Pluralistic World: Insights from Martin Buber and Miroslav Volf"

11:45-12:00 Break

12:00-1:00 T. Wilson Dickinson, Syracuse University

"The Other of the Heading: The Deconstruction of Religion and Doing the Truth"

1:00-2:45 Lunch

2:45-3:45 Lovisa Bergdahl, Stockholm University

"Lost in Translation: On the Untranslatable and its Ethical Implications for Religious Pluralism"

3:45-4:45 Neal DeRoo, Boston College

"Toward a Testimonial Understanding of Reason and Religion in the Public Sphere"

4:45-5:15 Break

5:15-6:45 Richard Kearney, Boston College

"Anatheism: Welcoming Strange Gods"

7:15-9:00 SCPT Banquet